Seller guidelines and things to note:

- Each item you bring to sell must have an easily removable tag
- Guild volunteers use your items' tags for checkout and for tracking sales
- If item is bagged or boxed, the tag should be on the outside
- Tags must include the seller's name or initials matching what is written on this form
- Tag creativity in color/shape/material is encouraged
- All items must be priced in no smaller than $0.25 increments (no dimes, no nickels, no pennies! None!).
- Drop off time for sale items is Friday, April 3 from 3-6pm
- Pick up time for unsold items is immediately following the sale on Saturday from 1:00-1:30pm
- Along with this form, please bring a self-addressed, stamped envelope

Seller's Agreement: By signing below, you acknowledge an understanding and agreement with the following:

1. The seller does not need to be present during sale hours.
2. Duluth Fiber Handcrafters Guild (DFHG) volunteers will monitor all merchandise during the sale to the best of our abilities. We do not have capacity to track a detailed individual inventory during the sale.
3. When removed from sale items, sale tags constitute the record of sales.
4. The DFHG retains 20% of the sale price for each item sold (See 'Outside Guild' sheet for those terms.)
5. 80% of the sale price for all items sold will be remitted to the seller by check within one week of the sale. The check will be mailed in the envelope provided by the seller.
6. The DFHG does not guarantee a reconciliation of items submitted for sale with items sold and picked up by the seller.
7. Unsold items MUST BE PICKED UP immediately following the sale between 1:00 and 1:30pm. Please do not leave unsold items behind. If you don't want them, we probably don't either.
